

SunStroke 74

One of the Break-Away Bike Club's yearly favorites. A flat to gently rolling course that will take you past or through; Galveston, the Mill at Pipe Creek Falls, Mississinnewa & Wabash rivers, Peru, Bunker Hill & Miami. We offer 2 sag stops to refuel and refresh, one water stop, and sag vehicle support to all riders.

This is traditionally a very hot ride. So drink plenty of water!

Don't want to ride 74 miles. Check out our new family friendly Ride the sunrise 7.4.

New START Location

This year we are excited to have a new start location. Since our ride coincides with Kokomo's Haynes Apperson Festival, we will be starting the ride from downtown Kokomo. We will be utilizing Memorial Gymnasium at the corner of Superior Street and Apperson Way in Kokomo. We will have showers and restrooms available for all participants.

There are many events in this three day sports and community festival to check out. Come for the weekend and take advantage of sporting activities, great food, and concerts.

For more information about the festival and the weekend events taking place check out their website at haynesappersonfestival.org.
